Hi Angela,

Sorry the buyer is upset. From my perspective, there isn't an issue that involves the seller. The buyer received a quote for a septic pump and asked the seller to sign a $500 amendment to cover the cost. My seller agreed, and we closed June 15th. It was not the seller's septic company that provided the quote. I was the buyers.

I just wanted to give you something in writing for the file.

Best,

David
